Security measures

For the safety and security of us all, the number of security agents on site has been increased. Bags are systematically checked and jackets and coats must be opened at the entrance. Large baggage of over 16 litres in volume (except for small backpacks, handbags and computer bags) are no longer accepted within our establishments, including the cloakroom. Any items, boxes or other containers left unattended as well as any suspect behaviour must be reported to Bateaux Parisiens crew members.
